

Senior leadership of AIS visit Tamana

The senior executive leadership of Association of Independent Schools (AIS) Australia, comprising Dr. Geoff Newcombe (Executive Director) and Mr. Darryl Buchanan (Director- Professional Development) , visited Tamana during their recent India visit on 22nd July 2011. They were accompanied by Mr. Sudhakar Jeyaram and Michael Fay from AFG Ventures who hosted the India visit.

AIS is the peak body representing the best private school brands in Australia. The objective was to meet select top education brands in the country to share experiences, discuss and evaluate relevance of AIS' s decades of experience working with several hundreds of private school networks in Australia and increasingly in Asia. AIS seeks to understand the various issues impacting excellence and delivery of quality private education in India.

The guests were received and welcomed at Nai Disha. After exchange of ideas with Dr Chona, Dr. Juneja and Mr Krishna Pratap, the guests were invited to view performances by Tamana students . The visitors were over whelmed and inspired by the students performances and went back highly impressed by Tamana.
